

Guardsman

Arlekin TS

Alvescott Odin

Lilly Hughes-Bell won the young rider championship class with her pony Rocky. "Rocky is 29-years-old and I am only nine" said Lilly. "He has been in the family a long time and I have known him since I was born. He used to be dressed in some very bright colours for music rocks.

Bill Adams with his 17-year-old horse Arkan Brooke, who is better known as Jerry. The pair won the in hand show horse championship, receiving the Frodo memorial shield. "We bred him so have had him all his life. I used to show him in the young stock class, then when broken, we showed him in the ridden hunter classes. He has jumped to newcomers and has done working hunter classes. He has hunted regularly for four years and when he turned 15 we started showing in the veteran classes," said Bill.

jumping pony and now I have taken him over as she is older now. I love showing and we are working on our dressage too. It always feels great and very exciting to win, and it is very special to win the class today."

Reserve In Hand Veteran went to Mr Buttons and Hannah Ludlow. The 26-year old pony has been in the family for 24 years. "He has been a fantastic all-rounder and he now lives out in the field and is grandad to the young ponies, which I think keeps him going!" said a thrilled and emotional Hannah.

Arkan Brooke

Nicola Timmins with her 19-year-old part-bred Arab Bobby won the title of in hand veteran of the year and also over all reserve veteran 2015. "I have owned her for 13 years; we have always competed in showing and dressage with her and recently we will be concentrating on the in hand classes," said Nicola "It is just amazing, I didn't think I would do as well as this and just to have been placed would have been enough, but to win is wonderful," she added.

Mr Buttons

with the Minty Memorial Trophy.

"We are delighted to support the Veteran Horse Society," said Sales Director Tim Page. "The National Supreme Championships is a wonderful event and a great opportunity for us to offer feed advice."

Laura Sheppard, Area Sales Manager said "It has been wonderful to see so many mature horses competing, over the weekend we have been able to offer feed advice on the extra essentials to keep them looking and feeling young at heart. It has been an enjoyable event, congratulations to Lucy Nazer and her horse, Rolandro"

enjoyable event, congratulations to Lucy Nazer and her horse, Rolandro"

Salisbury based Lucy Nazer riding 17-year-old Rolandro were the winners of the ridden pre-veteran regional final, the ridden veteran of the year and overall veteran of the year 2015. Lucy has owned Rolandro for 13 years and said, "We have mainly focused on competing in dressage up to Inter 1. We have only just started showing this year, and this is our third show. I will defiantly continue showing now." Lucy added, "Rolandro is worked three or four times a week with lots of hacking with schooling once a week if we are lucky. He is my best friend"

Allen and Page were on hand to offer feed advice and to present to the Champions Lucy Nazer and her horse, 17 year old Rolandro,

Rocky